About me:

Courageous, passionate, dedicated, hard-working attitude and determined professional. Gregory was raised in north-west London, England. He studied both in America and the UK, graduating from Roehampton University in 2011 with a 2:1 BA in Drama, Theatre, Performance and Film. At age 11, he made his acting debut with the Gilbert and Sullivan Society and since built an extensive resume which he can draw on from his life experience and consistent training over 15 years of stage and screen acting to meet production demands. Looking now for bigger principal roles in Feature Films & Television.
